

Try to use characteristics that are either Spartan or Athenian instead of just “Greek”. Use the questions as guidelines for your research. Each “question” does not have to be answered.

	SPARTA	ATHENS
Education -when do they start, who is educated , what is the curriculum (what is taught)who teaches, who is taught
Society- what are the classes, role of women, children...? Is there social mobility? type of “slavery”
Political- who makes the decisions, who can participate (citizen), what is the name for the government, how does it change, what is the role of the individual vrs. group
Economics/ Occupations- what types of work do they do? Do they have leisure time? what do they produce?
Culture (overall emphasis, art forms, religion)
Geography/ Location describe area. Where and what? how does this impact other systems?

First decide whether you would rather be an Athenian or a Spartan, then on the back or an attached support your choice without using the words I choose or I believe. You will be discussing the attributes of either the Spartans or the Athenians. Turn in all your notes, this chart and your paragraph about what you would choose.
